Tariffs In Washington and Reorganization Code In State of Ohio

TAXATION JEXES

Resume of Events Political, Mostly Affecting Affairs In State

THE LIMA NEWS BUREAU
Columbus, March 26

COLUMBUS — (Special) — Ford's emergency tariffs in Washington and reorganization codes in Ohio are the main items upon which the estimated Grand Old Party is to fare in the succeeding weeks. The medicine is all ready and no matter what many members think of the treatment, they are the "doctor's orders" and will be obeyed to the letter. The farmers are desperate, in Ohio as well as elsewhere, and will try anything. If their business gets better, they will give thanks and if it doesn't they will be more angry than they were when the rigid maximum prices were placed on their wheat. As for the reorganization, they will take it without hoping for relief from high taxes, because the revenue problems of Ohio are not state but local and the state's budget is well cared for even in the times when business is slack and revenues fall below the high levels of past years. It does strike them as strange that with a series of local taxation crises so widespread as to amount to a serious state situation, the talk is all about patronage and grabbing jobs. But they trusted Governor Harry L. Davis and the faithful have no thought of deserting him now.

As for the really big problem of taxation there is no progress to be noted from the charge of responsibility the Governor is to be defended and defended vigorously. He has taken a real hand in it and is not likely to take any hand in it. He did appoint a committee of investigation as quick as he learned that Messrs. Taber, Dyer and Braden, the three rural leaders who represent the "advanced thought" of the country organizations and when it seemed that the program, carefully thought out by the interested persons was due to go sailing thru the General Assembly. But from the time when Representative John W. Chester of Paulding, wrote his first explanation which fell like a bombshell on a meeting of field marshals, his interest in the program began to wane. In a perfunctory manner he submitted the report and let it go at that. From that hour, there being no interference from on high Chester began to win converts among the lawmakers as fast as Billy Sunday makes them among sinners. One after another they came to the uniform rule mourners' bench and the fellows who were weak in the faith became regular apostles of hell. It is a time-honored and consistent violation of principle of one valuation and one rate for all classes of property.

Of course, there may be old-fashioned folk old fogies, so to speak, who insist that the Governor's duty is to get in supreme crises, like that of taxation. How little they know of modern government of the 1921 model. The thing to do is to build up power and care for the fellows who helped when help was desperately needed. Let us but fix them in the payroll, those sweaty and blood-stained ward heelers, and the taxation question may wait. Upon this fundamental basis, Washington and Ohio are in full accord. At the camp followers make faces at each other. Foreign relations, security, critical, and the subject of the present campaign are shoved aside for the old, old remedy of the tariff. In Ohio, taxation is down to the cellar of legislative service and the rush is made for the jobs. The proposals are the first of kind at statemanship and represent the policy of merely ignoring disagreeable things, perhaps the best after all. Of course, the manner of doing things in making a lot of people in Ohio who looked for something to tax, but who are the same people as advocates of classification of property who are vexed that their principle should be treated as a sort of approval of which everybody should be ashamed. And if any amendment is finally submitted, watch them bat it around. The town children, let us suppose that the reorganization code is passed and the emergency clause and all that will happen then? Which is the question asked by Senator F. F. F. of Lorain-co when he began to measure swords with the Governor. In the first place the

Love Notes to 'Fifi' Branded As Forgeries

Letters Offered In Stillman Divorce Case Discovered by Fred Beauvais

Canadian Denies Improper Relations With Any Members of Family

(By JAMES R. KELLY)

MONTREAL — "The letters are forgeries," Fred Beauvais declared Saturday night, denying that he had written love notes to Mrs. James A. Stillman.

"The statements credited to me in these fake letters are ridiculous and will help Mrs. Stillman's case when their real origin is known," he told the United Press, in an exclusive interview.

Beauvais, named as co-respondent in James A. Stillman's divorce suit, is alleged to have mentioned "our boy" and "the joys of parenthood," in writing to Mrs. Stillman.

Stillman alleges that Beauvais is the "father of" Guy Stillman, born in the autumn of 1918.

Beauvais indicated that he had done some investigating for Mrs. Stillman, who has mentioned Mrs. Florence H. Leeds in her countercharges.

"I had to do some investigating," he said. "I found Mrs. Leeds' private telephone number. I made other discoveries. I was never in Mrs. Leeds' apartment. I know a woman, whom I am quite sure was Mrs. Leeds, but I was not personally acquainted with her."

"I am not interested in attacks on my character. But I deny that I have had improper relations with any member of the Stillman family. That is the only statement that I care to make for myself."

WONT TESTIFY
"I will not go to New York as a witness in the Stillman case. If I go back to New York at all, I will choose my own time for it."

Beauvais was in his insurance agency when I found him. On his desk was a black leather bound book of poems by H. Phelps Clavson of Buffalo. Among them is one extolling the woodland virtues of Beauvais, written in French-Canadian dialect. He showed his attention to business by dismissing the Stillman case as quickly as possible and talking insurance with such persuasiveness that he almost sold me a policy.

He denied making the statements credited to him in those reports in which he was said to charge fellow residents of the St. Maurice district.

STATE PRISON IS UNDER PROBE

"Nothing Startling Yet Found," Says Examiner Hoopengartner.

COLUMBUS — Affairs of the state penitentiary here have been under investigation for the last six weeks, State Auditor Tracy announced today.

The probe has been conducted by Marion Hoopengartner, examiner of state institutions, under direction of Tracy, the announcement said. The quiz has produced nothing sensational, Hoopengartner indicated Saturday night. He refused to say what matters he had investigated or reveal contents of his report which will be made public when completed.

"I've found nothing startling at the penitentiary," Hoopengartner declared. "Every time I make a regular investigation there prisoners tell me a lot of stories which generally prove unfounded. I've discovered a few things, but they are mistakes such as are liable to be made in any big institution."

Warden P. E. Thomas declared he invited the fullest investigation. He said he knew his alleged political activities had been probed.

"A thorough investigation will disclose that no political literature of any kind was printed at the penitentiary," Thomas declared.

"During the last eight years that I have been warden, I have attended strictly to my official business."

Regarding reports that one line of the investigation was that outside automobiles had been repaired in the prison garage, Thomas said that such repairs were made under orders of the state board of administration and the machines were used by the board.

STOPS WAR; U. S. POST HIS REWARD

Lima Man, Major Beaumont, Named Marshal to Alaska

FIRE POSTMASTER'S

Allen-co Men In Washington List for Consular Appointments

WASHINGTON, March 26

The man who stopped the world war is to be rewarded with an appointment as United States Marshal in Alaska, according to an "inside" tip. This man's name does not appear in the histories of the great conflict and yet if it had not been for a message he sent the war would have gone on for some time at least.

The man whose friends say stopped the war is Major George W. Beaumont, of Seattle, formerly of Lima, Ohio. He was the officer in charge of the 401st field telegraph battalion in France and he sent the telegraph message from General Pershing to the forces in the field which ended the firing.

He will soon receive a new war of his own. It will be directed against the criminals in Alaska. He is here to receive his appointment and to get his initial instructions. It is expected his name will be sent to the Senate soon after the extra session begins.

Information has been filed with Postmaster-General Will H. Hays concerning the alleged activity of certain Ohio postmasters in circulating scurrilous reports against Republican candidates during the Presidential campaign. In the majority of instances, this information is supported by formal charges and sworn affidavits.

If the Postmaster-General follows the recommendations of Senator Frank B. Willis, he will summon and give them an opportunity to plead guilty or not guilty. Those who admit the truth of the charges against them will be dismissed summarily from the service. Those who deny participation in the alleged offensive practice will be given a hearing before action is taken.

Senator Willis made it clear this week that he will not lend his aid to any movement to remove Federal office holders in Ohio before the election of their terms, unless it is shown that they are inefficient or that they were guilty of offensive partisanship during the campaign. He even went further and said that internal revenue collectors, who have no stipulated terms and who serve at the will of the President, will be permitted to serve out their four-year terms so long as they are not against their records to warrant their removal.

The first change in Ohio is scheduled to take place on or before April 1 next. The resignation of Beriah E. Williamson, collector of internal revenue at Columbus, has been received and has been accepted by the President. The resignation is dated April 1, and it is expected that he will take effect on that date. It is a curious fact that Newton M. Miller, of Columbus, will be named to succeed Mr. Williamson. He is the undersecretary of Senator Willis, and there has been no opposition to his selection from any source that would have influence at the White House.

Inquiry from Senator Willis elicited the response that it is not likely there will be changes in the other internal revenue collectorships to take effect early in the fall, unless one or more of the incumbents should resign unexpectedly. This is generally true of all Ohio Federal appointments, unless there is a sudden change in the situation. President Harding has so many other problems of greater importance to deal with in advance of the extraordinary session of Congress and during the first few weeks of that session that it will be almost a physical impossibility for him to consider this patronage, which, while important to Ohio and particularly to the applicants, is of minor consideration when compared to questions of national policy or even national patronage.

There is, however, a long list of Ohio postoffices which will be open to Republicans soon in fact, are open now, as the incumbents failed of confirmation at the last session of Congress and have no status as permanent appointments. It may be that the members of Congress from those districts will be able to speed up action on these appointments during the early spring and summer, providing President Harding reaches a decision regarding his attitude toward the executive order requiring civil service examinations of applicants among the larger Ohio offices in this category are Akron, Celina, Marietta, Sabina, Wilmington, Eaton and Leotosia.

There are persistent rumors to

HOUSE PLANS TO RECESS APRIL 11

Ohio Lower House Solons to Await Senate Work.

CODE HEARINGS THIS WEEK

Davis' Reorganization Measure Not Progressing Rapidly.

COLUMBUS — Administrative reorganization was the big problem confronting leaders of the general assembly Saturday night, as plans for the next legislative week were being shaped.

Senate leaders were dubious of the possibilities of securing a vote on the bill before early week after next, altho they were confronted with Governor Davis' appeal that reorganization be cleaned up as soon as expedient.

Hearings on the bill will be held thruout the coming week by the senate committee on reorganization and leaders were hopeful the measures could be reported back Thursday and made a special order for the following Tuesday.

House members were confronted with the taxation problem. The sponsors of the revenue bill were confident they would obtain action before a recess was taken and were completing finishing touches of the measure for presentation Monday night.

The election code bill and the proposal for local option for Sunday movies also was on the house calendar for the coming week.

MAY RECESS

Members of the lower branch persisted Saturday night in their threat to declare a vacation after the Wednesday session. The plan was to recess until after April 11, so as to give the senate an opportunity to the proposal for final adjournment the last of April, leaders said.

Labor fared well in the house during the last week. The Wenner bill for state awards for occupational disease and Schrimper proposal for a minimum wage for women and children in industry succeeded. The death of the Burns bill to permit insurance companies to compete with the state fund in workmen's compensation underwriting, was considered a victory for labor.

J. G. DAVIS NAMED

Iowa Man Appointed Director General of Railroads.

WASHINGTON — James C. Davis, Iowa, was formally appointed director general of railroads by President Harding Saturday night. He has been acting as counsel for the railroad administration and is thoroughly familiar with the legal tangles resulting from the abandonment of government operation.

President Harding also wrote a letter of thanks to John Bartow Payne, whom Davis succeeds, expressing his appreciation of the "signal service" you have rendered the country, not only in the important work you have done in connection with the administration of the railroads but with your notable contributions to the government service in one of the most difficult periods of all our history.

BABY LEFT ON PULLMAN BY 'STYLISH' GIRL

Infant Found on Train at Cleveland—Police Hunt Young Woman

CLEVELAND — Police Saturday were looking for a well-dressed young woman who left a week-old baby boy on a passenger train arriving at union station Saturday morning.

Five minutes after the train arrived and the passengers had departed, the infant was found in the woman's wash room of a Pullman car from Chicago by Marshall Hill, porter of the car. The baby was wrapped in a blue and white shawl.

The porter gave police a good description of the woman who had the baby with her when she boarded the train in Chicago and a city-wide hunt for her was in progress Saturday.

The porter described the woman as being stylishly dressed and about 19 years of age.

WOMAN IS SLAIN

West Virginia Resident Shot by Former Suitor; Report.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — With her spinal cord shattered by a bullet said to have been fired by a former suitor, Mrs. Joseph Tully, 27, of South Charleston, died in a local hospital Saturday night.

Perry Anderson, 30, charged with the shooting, was captured by Mrs. Tully's husband and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Morehead, after a terrific struggle and turned over to the police.

Anderson is said to have obtained a license to wed the woman sometime ago and upon learning of the remarriage, it is charged he borrowed a revolver from another woman and came to the Tully home in company with William Davis, foster uncle of Mrs. Tully, called her to the door and shot her.

Anderson, when questioned, said the shooting was accidental. He claimed he borrowed the revolver to protect himself while traveling at night. He said he went to the Tully home to collect some money which Mrs. Tully owed him.

HARDING INDORSES IRISH RELIEF PLAN

NEW YORK — President Harding Saturday telegraphed to the American committee for relief in Ireland his endorsement of the campaign to raise more than $10,000,000.

The president's message, made public Saturday night, said: "I wish you the fullest measure of success not only in the benefit performance you are to conduct at the Metropolitan Opera House on April 3, but in every worthy effort to make a becoming contribution to the part of our people to relieve distress among the women and children of Ireland. People of America never will be deaf to the call for relief in behalf of suffering humanity and the knowledge of distress in Ireland makes quick and deep appeal to the more fortunate of our land where so many of our citizens trace kinship to the Emerald Isle."

FIFTEEN SEWER BIDS ARE UNDER ESTIMATES

City officials are very much gratified with the fifteen bids received for the construction of the Lakewood, Nixon and Wendal-ave sewers, received Saturday. The estimated cost of the sewers is $25,000 and all bids are under this figure. They have not yet been tabulated.

The bidders were McHugh and Cole of South Bend, Ind., and C. A. Plock, F. A. Probasco Summers & Hardin and Foley & Moriarty of Lima.

TWO DIE IN LOVE TANGLE, CHARGE

Kentucky Widow Accused of Poisoning Her Children.

SOUGHT REMARRIAGE CLAIM

Freedom of "Incumbrance" Aimed, Officials Say.

PIKEVILLE, Ky. — Mrs. William Mullin, held Saturday in the county jail on charge of poisoning her two children, will plead insanity, according to local officials.

Officials say there's a love motive behind the alleged crime; that Mrs. Mullin, a widow, with four children, sought to free herself to marry a widower, who also has children.

Mrs. Mullin not only denies the poisoning, but the love theory. The woman, who lived at Myra, a little mountain town, was left a widow last fall.

POISON PURCHASED
Recently, her eldest daughter married. Then it is alleged the question of her remarriage came up, but the prospective groom is said to have contended that their children would not get along together.

Officials charge Mrs. Mullin went to Jenkins, a nearby town, and purchased some quinine capsules and some poison.

At dinner her son-in-law complained that something was wrong with the bread; that he felt ill after taking a few bites.

The rest of the meal was dumped out to a box which it is said, died shortly after eating it.

TWO CHILDREN DIE
Soon after this, a three-year-old child became ill and a doctor was called. One hour after the physician's departure, the baby died, altho the apparently relieved when the physician left.

A few days later the mother is said to have requested that her 15-year-old daughter, who had been staying with a neighbor, come home. It is alleged the mother gave the girl one of the capsules, which she had secured at Jenkins, claiming it would help her cold.

A physician was called, but before he arrived the girl was dead. Mrs. Mullin was arrested when remaining capsules were examined, of which charge, each was found to contain a portion of poison.

WOOD MEN SUED

Chicago Hotel Demands $15,000 of Campaign Committee

CHICAGO — Echoes of General Leonard Wood's lavish campaign for the Republican nomination for the presidency were again heard in court here Saturday.

The Congress Hotel sued the Wood campaign committee, composed of William Cooper Procter, A. A. Sprague, J. J. McGraw and Fred Stanley, for $15,000.

The bill covers room rent, shoe shines, meals, broken chairs, and laundry. Of the amount $10,000 is for rental of three suites, including the Elizabethan and Francis I rooms.

William Cooper Procter recently sued A. A. Sprague, fellow member of the Wood committee, for $110,000 he said he loaned to make General Wood, president.

Sprague said that Procter was the "angel" of Wood and gave the money outright.

OWNERS ARE FORCED TO VIEW RUIN

Irish Compelled to Look On as Soldiers Plant Bombs

TOWNS WIPED OUT

Furniture Is Dragged Into Streets and Set Afire

DUBLIN — Crown forces raided West Port early Saturday. Firing rifles and shotguns and hand grenades into the street, the soldiers rushed into the town with their lorry, muffers wide open.

Saloons, stores and dwelling houses were bombed and burned. Furniture and bedding were dragged into the streets and fired.

At Cunganvan, the soldiers armed themselves with axes and demolished private dwellings and their contents.

Five households were dragged before one squad which demanded the immediate payment of 100 pounds from each. One man paid, the others refused and were compelled to look on while their homes were burned.

MANY RESIDENTS FLEE
Most Cunganvan residents were at home when their dwellings were burned. At West Port only a few remained. Fearing reprisals after the ambush at Carrow Kennedy residents fled to the outlying country.

The military Saturday discovered extensive trenches along the roads leading into Newry. The town was without communication facilities, all wires having been cut. Soldiers declared there was every evidence that a big ambushade had been planned.

In Dublin Saturday there were sporadic disorders. One death was reported from a night clash in which a Sinn Fein, Augustine Murphy, was shot dead.

READY FOR QUICK ACTION
The Easter races Saturday were well attended but there were signs the military did not propose to be caught napping as in 1916. While soldiers were given liberty, preparations were made for quick mobilization.

The lack of Sinn Fein activity in the rural districts was regarded as an ominous sign.

British officials admitted they were jumpy. They admitted they expected trouble Sunday and Monday, despite their watchfulness.

The week just closing saw 84 deaths resulting from the conflict, the death list was the greatest since the 1916 rebel action.

TOWNS WRECKED
DUBLIN — A series of raids and reprisals in southwestern Ireland Saturday broke the unofficial Easter armistice.

Westport, in County Mayo, wrecked by crown forces in reprisal at Carrow Kennedy ambush, residents were subjected to a four-hour reign of terror. Cunganvan was wrecked in a similar way.

In Dublin fears were entertained for a repetition of the Easter rebellion of 1916. Extra guards were mounted and Easter regulations were put into effect.

MAY TAKE PLANTS

Allies Plan to Make Germany Pay Indemnity.

PARIS — The French cabinet Saturday night was working on new draft penalties which will be inflicted upon Germany immediately should she default on May 1, when another reparations payment of 11,000,000,000 marks is due. The reparations commission is known to have made certain recommendations regarding a course to pursue in forcing Germany to make payments, but these are a closely guarded secret.

The opinion that additional penalties will be of an economic nature, including possibly occupation of German seaports and customs houses. The press, however, has begun to receive hints from apparently inspired sources that inasmuch as the financial groups, such as those controlled by St. Innes and Krupp are the chief obstacles to payment, the allies should seize financial control of their enterprises.

The newspapers are unanimous in the opinion that recent events have proved that Germany has no intention of paying, recognizing the difficulties that would confront the allies in forcing payment.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS FOR THE WEEK

STOPS WAR; U. S. POST REWARD

TO FIRE OHIO POSTMASTERS

Allen-co Men in Washington List for Consular Jobs.

the effect that Forrest L. May, postmaster at Dayton, is one of those slated for early removal. Republican charge him with having been too active in behalf of his fellow-townsmen, former Governor James M. Cox, during the recent campaign. Mrs. May is quite prominent in national postal circles, at present holding the office of President of the National Association of Postmasters.

On the whole, however, there is good reason to accept the statements of Republican leaders that incumbent postmasters will be permitted to serve out their terms, a custom that has been practiced with but little departure by the last several administrations.

It is believed that considerable headway was made in reaching an agreement on the Ohio patronage situation at a conference held Thursday afternoon between President Harding and Senator Willis. There was no definite announcement forthcoming after their conference, but it is reasonable to assume that Senator Willis left the executive offices with a better understanding of the part he is to play in the disposition of the major federal offices in Ohio. As a matter of fact, Senator Willis' endorsement will appear on the application of every successful appointee in Ohio if the entire cordial agreement between the Ohio Senator and the President is maintained, which no one doubts, but he may have to defer in a few cases to the personal desire of the President and his chief political counselor, Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty. Even in this event, there will be a large number of appointments at Senator Willis' disposal, as he has no colleagues in the Senate with whom he will be compelled to divide patronage.

Other subjects discussed by the President and Senator Willis were the proposed emergency tariff bill which has the approval of President Harding and the Administration leaders in Congress as the first legislative enactment of the new Congress, and the Colombian treaty which the President has let it be known he will submit to the Senate with a recommendation for ratification. Senator Willis had no hesitancy in saying that he will support the emergency tariff bill, but he was less communicative about the Colombian treaty. There is a remote possibility that Senator Willis may break with the President on the treaty question, but this hardly squares with his political practices in the past, which always were along the lines of party regularity. However, it is believed that personally he is not at all enthusiastic about ratification of the treaty. In this connection, it might be said that President Harding will find himself face to face with considerable Republican opposition against the Colombian treaty, an opposition that is determined to exhaust every parliamentary resource to defeat its ratification. Among the active opponents are listed Senators Hiram Johnson, of California; William E. Borah, of Idaho; Miles Poindexter, of Washington; Irvine Lenroot, of Wisconsin, and Frank Knapp, of Minnesota.

The official confirmation still is lacking, it is accepted generally here that Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, has been tendered the appointment as ambassador to Japan. There is no doubt but that Mr. Brown has been offered some important post by the President and speculation has narrowed down to the Tokio post. For some reason, both the President and Mr. Brown seem to be maintaining the strictest silence with reference to their numerous conferences here last week. But it is accepted here as a foregone conclusion that if the Toledo man does not have an important connection with the new administration, it will be because he has declined to assume the sacrifice that absence from his private interests would entail.

The boom of Representative John G. Cooper, of Youngstown, for appointment as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission is being retarded seriously by the movement in behalf of another Youngstown man, D. B. Robertson, national vice-president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers, for the same place. A delegation of prominent Ohio union leaders recently called upon President Harding to urge Mr. Robertson's selection. Friends of Mr. Cooper allege that the Robertson movement in reality is merely an attempt to defeat Congressman Cooper for the appointment. To he has the indorsement of virtually all of the Ohio members in Congress, opposition to Mr. Cooper from his home town may place the President in an embarrassing position when he comes to consider Mr. Cooper's qualifications for the place. Another Ohio aspirant, H. C. Haynes of Lima, is doomed to disappointment, according to reliable reports. Mr. Haynes, who has been an employee of the government printing office here for many years, is an applicant for the office of public printer. Representative John L. Cable has been to the White House in his behalf, but it is understood that the President has decided that this appointment shall go to another state.

There are scores of Ohio applicants for positions in the diplomatic service, but their fate will depend largely upon whether Ohio is represented among the important foreign assignments. If, as is rumored, Myron T. Herrick is named ambassador to France and Walter F. Brown is given the Tokio assignment, Ohio's share of diplomatic assignments, if, however, either of these men are not named or decline appointment, the chances of the Ohio applicants for less important berths in the consular service will improve materially. Senator Willis this week gave his indorsement to President Harding of Dr. John G. Wislizenus, of Warren, opponent of appointment as minister to Peru and J. J. ...

PRINCIPAL FIGURES IN THE STILLMAN DIVORCE CASE, INVOLVING MILLIONS AND REPUTATIONS

with blackmail in agreeing to testify against Mrs. Stillman. These statements, he said Saturday night, were impressions picked up during a tour of the St. Maurice region and were not made by him.

DIVORCE CASE NEARS DEADLOCK

NEW YORK.—Evidence continued to accumulate Saturday night that the Stillman divorce case is fast approaching a deadlock.

Friends of both James A. Stillman, president of the National City Bank, and his wife, the former "Pips" Potter, were becoming more convinced that a separation agreement, ending the already tangled legal proceedings, is the only solution.

This situation was the result of the equity rule providing that a litigant must come into court with "clean hands."

Should Mrs. Stillman be able to prove her charge that her husband is the "Franklin Harold Leeds" who is the father of Jay Leeds, two-year-old son of Mrs. Florence Leeds, he would be unable to obtain a decree.

The same would apply to Mrs. Stillman's pending counter-suit, should Stillman prove his charge that two-year-old Guy Stillman, youngest of her four children, is the son of Fred Beauvais, French-Canadian guide.

It was emphasized, however, that even the separation agreement were signed, there would remain unresolved what Justice Morschauer characterized as "the most important issue in the case"—determination of the paternity of Guy Stillman.

John E. Mack, acting as guardian for the boy in case of a secret agreement, would require the multimillionaire acknowledge the boy as his son, automatically making Guy heir to a $2,500,000 share in the Stillman estate, or prove in open court that the child is illegitimate.

The next legal move in the case will be Justice Morschauer's decision on Mrs. Stillman's motion to increase her alimony to $10,000 a month and her counsel fees to $75,000.

It had been expected that the court would make its decision known Monday, in White Plains. But Justice Morschauer indicated Saturday that he might spend several days next week in going over the various documents and that the decision might not be reached before Monday, April 4.

INTEREST IN LETTERS

The chief interest in the papers now before the court revolves around five letters which Beauvais is alleged to have written to Mrs. Stillman after the birth of Guy, in which he is said to have made several references to "our child."

Friends of the defendant contend that these letters are forgeries.

New light on Stillman's alleged relations with Mrs. Leeds, who is still in hiding, was received Saturday from an intimate friend of Mrs. Stillman. According to this informant the banker spent so much money on Mrs. Leeds that quarrels arose over finances, thus bringing the divorce action to a culmination.

At a time when Mrs. Stillman was trying to induce her husband to give her money for a tennis court for the children at their country home in Pleasantville, and he was protesting that he could not afford it, she is alleged to have opened a letter, and found two bills for goods purchased by Mrs. Leeds, each for more than $1,000.

During this period that Mrs. Stillman alleges her husband was spending great sums on Mrs. Leeds and keeping his yacht, the Modesty, in commission for her, he was said to have urged his wife frantically to go to their farm at Grand Anson.

Stillman is said to have begun accusing his wife of extravagance, with the result that she had difficulty in getting money for her household expenses.

Mrs. Stillman then became so interested in her husband's financial affairs that she frequently visited the National City Bank, much to his annoyance. Shortly after this, he filed suit for divorce.

WEATHER MAY BE GOOD TODAY

Showers Expected to Interfere With Easter Toggery Showing.

When milady awakens this Easter morning, instead of daffodils, she will probably see shining raindrops.

She will likely unfold her new Easter things, look them over, admire herself in her own mind and carefully fold and put them away again.

The new bonnet, which she believes has been the envy of her dearest friend the last month, and which she purchased on part of her self-denial money, will be taken from its tissue paper coverings, only to be admired like the dresses and suits and put away for another day.

For if the prediction of the weatherman can be believed, he will be making today. It looks like showers, with maybe a little sunshine thrown in for a few hours. There will probably be some wind, too. He doesn't speak at all encouragingly to show off the efforts of milliner, modiste and all the over-worked persons who have assisted in getting out the Easter toggery.

In accordance with the dictatorial fashion, flowers must be worn, especially by the women, on Easter. Lima florists report a larger sale of cut flowers and potted plants than on any occasion since the war.

The prices are moderately lower, tempting many people to purchase. Mother, sister, sweetheart and wife came in for their share of Easter tokens.

Confectioneries and drug-tories also report large sales of candy and bon-bons, flowers and candy vying with each other in the gifts to make dear the heart of woman-kind on Easter morn.

SEEKS TO BE GUARDIAN FOR W. H. M'GANNON

CLEVELAND.—Mrs. Anna McGannon Saturday filed an application in probate court here, asking that she be appointed guardian for her husband, William H. McGannon, former chief justice of city court.

Previous to asking appointment as guardian, Mrs. McGannon was granted a restraining order against the Society for Savings preventing the bank from issuing further funds of McGannon.

McGannon was recently acquitted of a second degree murder charge in connection with the mysterious shooting of Harold C. Kazy, May 8. He resigned from the chief justiceship of city court within a week after his acquittal.

Material to Be Placed, Ready for Good Roads Day.

"Manufacturers, owners and operators of and dealers in motor trucks and automobiles are expected to and are responding to the appeal of the Allen-co Good Roads committee for effective assistance in promoting the movement for immediate repair of the main market roads of the county during the next few weeks, J. W. Beall, chairman of the truck committee said Saturday night. "Owners and operators of motor trucks will be the first ones needed in the work of improving road conditions in the county and it is hoped they will respond voluntarily to the call for aid in order that some five thousand tons of free road material that is now available may be distributed over the county in advance of Good Roads Day, April 15."

START HAULING MONDAY

Beginning Monday, donated trucks will commence the hauling of slag ballast from the plant of The Ohio Steel Foundry company. About 5,000 tons of this material for road repairs has been donated by The Ohio Steel and the company has also employed an extra force of men to break up and load the material. Citizens who donate the use of trucks and truck drivers will be required only to transport the ballast material from the steel plant to various points along the main market roads where the material is most needed. The county commissioners, anxious to give every assistance possible to the good roads movement, will furnish men to accompany each truck to the point of delivery and to perform the unloading work.

Most of the road repair material to be hauled this week will probably be sent to points along the Lima-Beaverdam (Dixie Highway) road which is badly in need of repair and which will, when placed in good condition, make possible continuous good driving between Lima, Toledo and Detroit. Material will also be sent out along the Lima-Kenton, Lima-Bellefontaine, Lima-St. Johns, Lima-Elida, Lima-Wapakoneta, Lima-Gomer and other roads now in need of repairs. The committee in charge of the good roads movement is working in conjunction with the county commissioners and efforts will be put forth to see that every ton of material sent out is placed in the localities where it is most needed. These locations will be determined by the commissioners from day to day and the dispatching of the truck loads from the steel plant will be attended to by employees of the Ohio Steel, co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce, the Good Roads committee and the commissioners.

PELA FOR TRUCKS

If you are the owner of a motor truck that can be given over to this work for a day, two, three or four days or a week, make the fact known to either the Chamber of Commerce or to J. W. Beall, chairman of the motor truck division of the Good Roads committee. The use of these trucks at any time they may be available from now until April 15 will greatly facilitate the better roads movement and will be appreciated by all who are interested. We invite trade to Lima; let's make the roads available for those who would accept the invitation.

14 ARRESTED IN RAID HELD TO GRAND JURY

TOLEDO.—Fourteen men arrested at Willard, Ohio, in a raid conducted by federal agents and railroad detectives Friday night, were held to the federal grand jury under $2,100 bond each when arraigned here Saturday.

Three of the 14 besides being charged with conspiracy to commit interstate robbery, are charged with stealing a mail pouch at the Willard railroad station on March 11, 1919, containing Liberty bonds worth $5,000.

Willard is a division point on the B. & O. Railroad officials declare that thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise has been lost annually by theft at Willard. They believe that with the arrests Friday night, the ring which has been responsible for the thefts has been broken.

EX-TREASURER OF U. S. SUES FOR $500,000

CHICAGO.—John Burke, former treasurer of the United States under the Wilson administration, Saturday instituted suits for $500,000 damages in circuit court against R. H. McMaisters, stock broker.

Attorney Philip A. Davis, who filed the suit in behalf of Burke, and Louis M. Kardos, stock brokers, with headquarters in Chicago, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, said the suit was the outgrowth of slanderous remarks.

TO FIRE OHIO POSTMASTERS

the effect that Forrest L. May, postmaster at Dayton, is one of those slated for early removal. Republican charge him with having been too active in behalf of his fellow-townsmen, former Governor James M. Cox, during the recent campaign. Mr. May is quite prominent in national postal circles, at present holding the office of president of the National Association of Postmasters.

On the whole, however, there is good reason to accept the statements of Republican leaders that incumbent postmasters will be permitted to serve out their terms, a custom that has been practiced with but little departure by the last several administrations.

It is believed that considerable headway was made in reaching an agreement on the Ohio patronage situation at a conference held Thursday afternoon between President Harding and Senator Willis. There was no definite announcement forthcoming after their conference, but it is reasonable to assume that Senator Willis and the executive offices with a better understanding of the part he is to play in the disposition of the major Federal offices in Ohio. As a matter of fact, Senator Willis' endorsement will appear on the application of every successful appointee in Ohio if the entire cordiality between the Ohio Senator and the President is maintained, which no one doubts, but he may have to defer in a few cases to the personal desires of the President and his chief political counselor, Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty. Even in this event, there will be a large number of appointments at Senator Willis' disposal, as he has a colleague in the Senate with whom he will be compelled to divide patronage.

Other subjects discussed by the President and Senator Willis were the proposed emergency tariff bill which has the approval of President Harding and the Administration leaders in Congress as the first legislative enactment of the new Congress, and the Colombian treaty which the President has let it be known he will submit to the Senate with a recommendation for ratification. Senator Willis had no hesitation in saying that he will support the emergency tariff bill, but he was less communicative about the Colombian treaty. There is a remote possibility that Senator Willis may have with the President on the treaty question, but this hardly squares with his political practices in the past, which always were along the lines of party regularity. However, it is believed that personally he is not at all enthusiastic about ratification of this treaty. In this connection it might be said that President Harding will find himself face to face with considerable Republican opposition against the Colombian treaty, an opposition that is determined to exhaust every parliamentary resource to defeat its ratification. Among the active opponents are listed Senators Hiram Johnson, of California; William E. Borah, of Idaho; Miles Poindexter, of Washington; Irvine Lenroot, of Wisconsin; and Frank Kellogg, of Minnesota.

The official confirmation still is lacking, it is accepted generally here that Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, has been tendered the appointment as ambassador to Japan. There is no doubt but that Mr. Brown has been offered some important post by the President and speculation has narrowed down to the Tokio post. For some reason, both the President and Mr. Brown are maintaining the strictest silence with reference to their numerous conferences here last week. But it is accepted here as a fact that Mr. Brown is in the Toledo man does not have an important connection with the new administration, it will be because he has declined to assume the sacrifice that absence from his private interests would entail.

The boom of Representative John G. Cooper, of Youngstown, for appointment as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission is being retarded seriously by the movement in behalf of another Youngstown man, R. B. Robertson, national vice-president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineemen, for the same place. A delegation of prominent Ohio union leaders recently called upon President Harding to urge Mr. Robertson's selection. Friends of Mr. Cooper allege that the Robertson movement in reality is merely an attempt to defeat Congressman Cooper for the appointment. That he has the endorsement of virtually all of the Ohio members in Congress, opposition to Mr. Cooper from his home town may place the President in an embarrassing position when he comes to consider Mr. Cooper's qualifications for the place.

with blackmail in agreeing to testify against Mrs. Stillman. These statements, he said Saturday night, were impressions picked up during a tour of the St. Maurice region and were not made by him.

DIVORCE CASE NEARS DEADLOCK

NEW YORK — Evidence continued to accumulate Saturday night that the Stillman divorce case is fast approaching a deadlock.

Friends of both James A. Stillman, president of the National City Bank, and his wife, the former "Pitt" Potter, were becoming more convinced that a separation agreement, ending the already tangled legal proceedings, is the only solution.

This situation was the result of the equity rule providing that a litigant must come into court with "clean hands."

Should Mrs. Stillman be able to prove her charge that her husband is the "Franklin Harold Leeds" who is the father of Jay Leeds, two-year-old son of Mrs. Florence Leeds, he would be unable to obtain a decree.

The same would apply to Mrs. Stillman's pending counter-suit, should Stillman prove his charge that two-year-old Guy Stillman, youngest of her four children, is the son of Fred Beauvais, French-Canadian pianist.

Gay Stillman, left, thirty months old, Mrs. Stillman charges, is the son of Mrs. Stillman and the half-breed guide, Fred Beauvais. At right, Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, former "chicken" in the Dillingham-Ziegfeld Century chorus, named by Mrs. Stillman as co-respondent. Below James A. Stillman, millionaire banker, and his wife.

over finances, thus bringing the divorce action to a culmination.

At a time when Mrs. Stillman was trying to induce her husband to give her money for a tennis court for the children at their country home in Pleasantville, and he was protesting that he could not afford it, she is alleged to have opened a letter and found two bills for goods purchased by Mrs. Leeds, each for more than $1,000.

During this period that Mrs. Stillman alleges her husband was spending great sums on Mrs. Leeds and keeping his yacht, the Modesty, in commission for her, he was said to have urged his wife frequently to go to their farm at Grand Anse.

Stillman is said to have been accusing his wife of extravagance, with the result that she had difficulty in getting money for her household expenses.

Mrs. Stillman then became so interested in her husband's financial affairs that she frequently visited the National City Bank, much to his annoyance. Shortly after this, he filed suit for divorce.

It's a great list, with screendom's most illustrious players in their newest vehicles. Prominent in the week's directory is the Thomas H. Ince Special, "Lying Lips," which opens the week at the Sigma theatre. Truly, it is a great picture, one that will leave a lasting impression in the minds of any audience.

The exceptional cast includes Florence Vidor and House Peters. The scenes embrace views of England, Canada, aboard ship and in mid-ocean. The photography is exceptionally beautiful and the picture as a whole is to be commended.

The Faurot's program for the week opens with a double show today, for the enjoyment of patrons. Besides a splendid comedy-drama, "An Amateur Devil," in which Bryant Washburn is starred, the program includes a high-class musical act entitled "When Dreams Come True," a beautifully staged added attraction that should prove popular.

Douglas Fairbanks appears today at the Lyric theatre in a brand new one, "The Nut," said by critics to be Doug's best release so far. And it must be some picture, if it is better than "The Mark of Zorro." Remember that one?

Billie Burke is also prominent in the week's directory, appearing last of the week at the Faurot theatre in "The Education of Elizabeth."

Lionel Barrymore, the renowned actor, is the Regent's offering today and for three days. Mr. Barrymore, aided by a competent cast, is appearing in "The Great Adventure," a highly humorous tale with plenty of action. Doris Rankin plays opposite the star.

"The Truth About Husbands" is the interesting title of a picture to be exhibited at the Regent the last of the week, beginning on Wednesday. Anna Lehr and May McAvoy are prominently cast in this production.

The week's best comic is to be "The Haunted House," in which Buster Keaton is starred. "The Haunted House" is classed as an A-comedy with Buster at his very best. "The Majestic" program opens today with "The Confession," in which Henry B. Walthall is starred. On Tuesday will be seen Robert Warwick in "Told in the Hills," a thrilling drama with a prominent cast.

The Lyric Picture

An optical feast is promised to picture patrons at the Lyric theatre today where Douglas Fairbanks' new picture "The Nut" is being exhibited. According to advance reports regarding this production, the public may expect to view a real solution innovation. For originality of plot and novelty of treatment, this picture is said to excel anything yet attempted by the ingenious "Doug."

Nola St. Claire, with the Musical Success, "When Dreams Come True," at the Faurot 'Ed.

Thos. H. Ince, Producer of the Great Feature Picture, "Lying Lips," at the Sigma Sunday.

"The Nut" is from the pen of Kenneth Davenport and relates the story of Charlie Jackson, an eccentric young fellow whose hobby is invention. He is also deeply in love with a girl who lives in the flat above his in Greenwich Village, and having laid siege to this lady's heart, he invents ways of pleasing her, and also ways of getting out of trouble, always caused by his inventions.

Altho one laughs uproariously at "The Nut's" misfortunes, he has the trick of holding your sympathy; you feel sorry for the predicaments into which he gets himself, because of his earnestness as a sultor. A few of his tribulations involve being suspected of murder, starting a fire, getting caught in the street in B. V. D's, robbing a wax figure museum and making a single handed raid on a gambling house.

As Charlie Jackson, Fairbanks gives one of the best roles of his career. Not only does he endow the role with a wealth of humanness and sympathy, but he injects a droll humor into his work which brands him as a comedian of the highest rank.

Marguerite De la Motte in the feminine role proves a very bewitching heroine and William Lowery is convincing as the gambling house proprietor. The supporting players are well chosen, rounding out a well balanced cast. The interior of several show places of Greenwich Village are to be seen in this production, among them the celebrated "Pirate's Den" recently destroyed by fire. Several authors and artists opened their studios for use during the filming of the production, with a result that settings for "The Nut" are some of the most spectacular and bizarre ever thrown on the silver sheet. "The Nut" is a worthy Easter offering. It opens today at the Lyric for a five-day run.

IN HIS LATEST AND POSITIVELY HIS BEST PICTURE

THE NUT

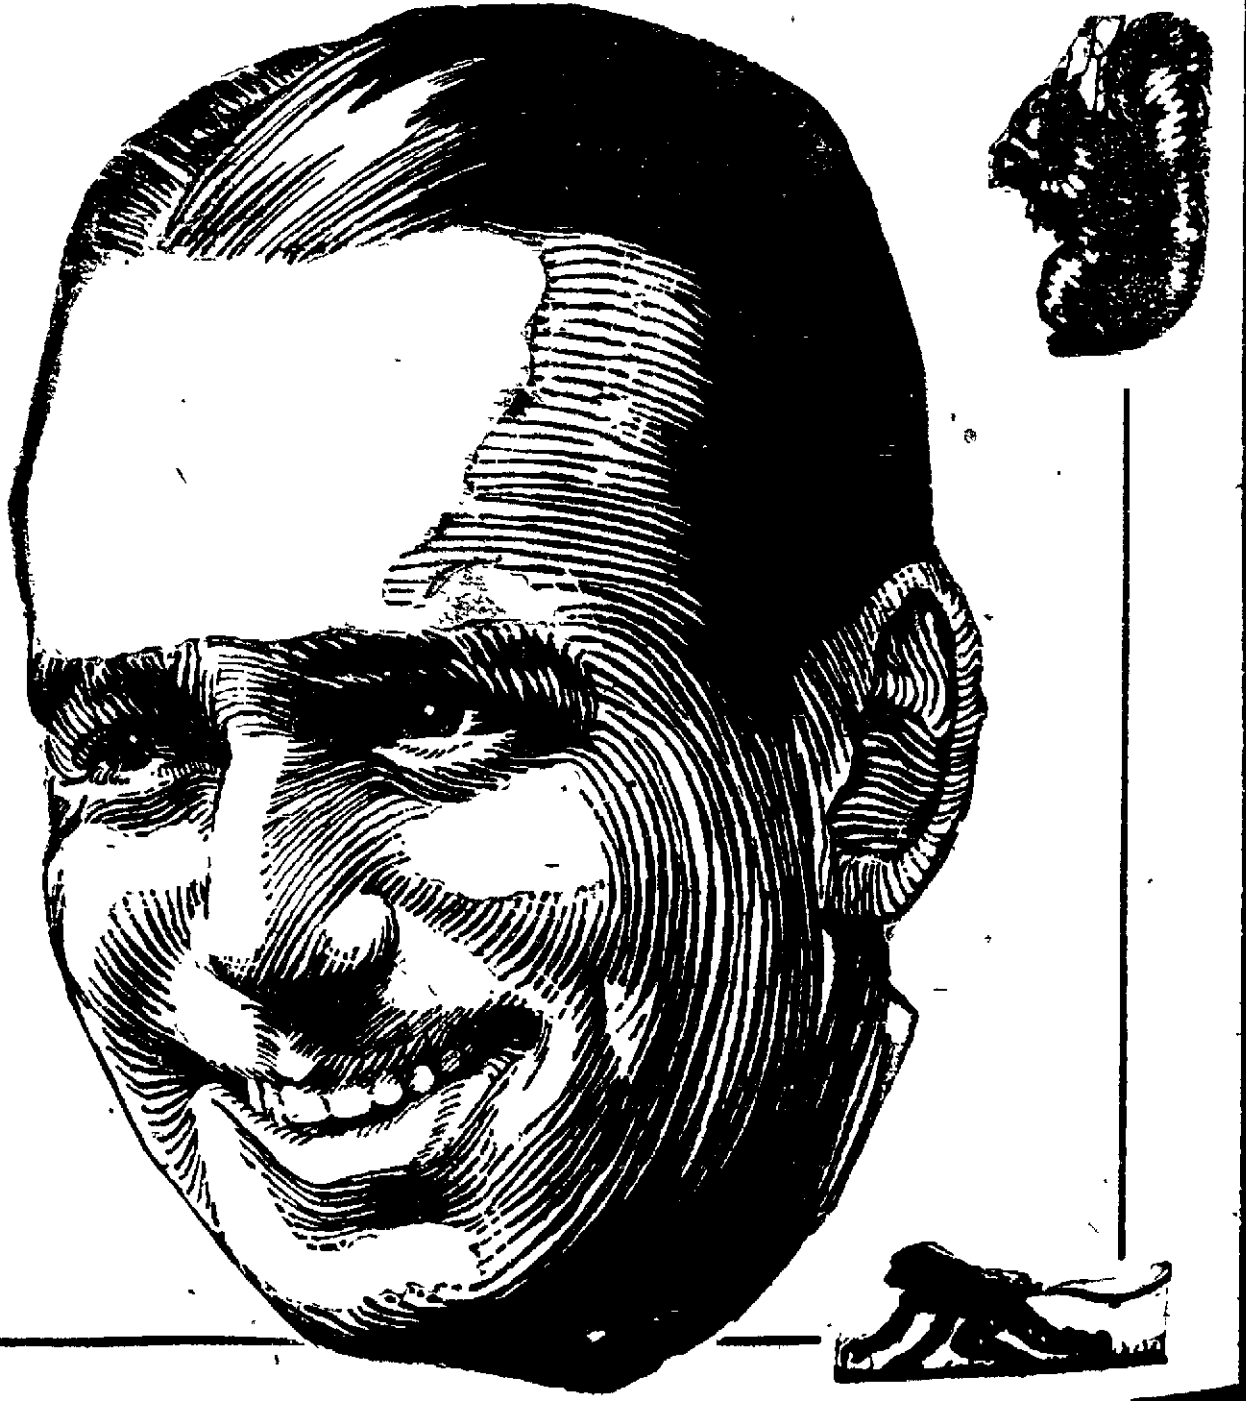

ROMANCE! ACTION! NOVELTY! ADVENTURE!

Yet withal something "different" that makes it better by far than anything Fairbanks has ever produced — You'll like it!

A picture that will keep you in a perfect uproar of laughter, yet which carries a vein of pathos and seriousness that keeps you "with him" all the time.

In this picture "Doug" excels himself in the execution of a multitude of neck-breaking, agile stunts, all the while wearing his infectious smile that simply won't come off, and throwing into his performance such a gorgeous amount of devil-may-care "pep" that his admirers will hail this performance yet—

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS IT!

See him run the marathon through New York's crowded streets in his B. V. D's.

French Executive Wages Battle on Own Initiative

OPENS CITY MEAT DEPOTS

Quickly Puts Prices of Food on Lower Levels

(By MAYOR MEYER)
LE HAVRE. — Much perturbed by the high cost of living in France since the end of the war and of the small effort made by the authorities to reduce it, the municipality of Le Havre at a recent session called upon me to take measures with a view of bringing the price of food-stuffs to a lower level.

Acting upon such instructions I immediately decided that milk and meat were the two most important foodstuffs and that consequently attempts should be made to reduce their cost. I first negotiated with the Union of Milkmen and succeeded in obtaining from it the information that the authorized Government increase of twenty centimes per litre should be reduced to ten in Le Havre, and that certain categories of consumers, such as the poor and widows of soldiers killed in the war and large families, should not continue to pay the former price.

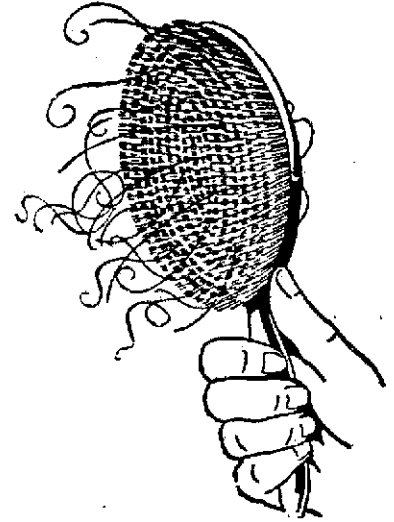

Encouraged by this success, I then went out to fight the price of meat. Here, however, I failed to force the retail butchers to reduce their prices and immediately decided that the municipality should become a big competitor. We first bought animals in the district but at a price which could not compete with established butchers' figures. I then decided to appeal to an agricultural country where the exchange was not to our disadvantage. Morocco offered a good field, and I got into touch with Marshal Lyautey and asked him to name the names and addresses of dealers who could supply me with large quantities of live stock. My first deal was the purchase of 220 bulls, and I sent out there a representative of the municipality with instructions to look over the likely meat and egg markets.

I have every reason to believe that it will be possible to bring over from Morocco a number of animals and a quantity of meat necessary to influence present prices. I realize the difficulties confronting us, but experience alone can tell what the results will be. In view of the disregard Government officials have for the high cost of foodstuffs and of the exaggerated price of county products, such as cattle, butter and eggs, I considered it my duty as a representative of an important center thickly populated by working classes not to show the same indifference and use all the means at my disposal, sometimes a little brusque, likely to bring about a fall in prices on divers goods, such as coffee, cotton, leather, wool, etc.

As in everything it is the first step which counts. I wanted to help our dealers to take that first

EPSOM SALTS LIKE LEMONADE

If you want all the splendid physiological action of a dose of epsom salts without the awful taste and nausea ask for a handy package of "Epsomade Salts" which is real epsom salts combined with fruit derivatives, giving it the taste of sparkling lemonade. Try it when bilious, headachy or constipated. Costs but a few cents.

Warning! Don't just ask for "tasteless epsom salts" or you may get a soda imitation. Always ask for "Epsomade Salts" and look for the name, American Epsom Association.

step. They did not show any enthusiasm either for the step or for me. I certainly feel sorry but I am convinced of having taken an initiative the results of which, if they are not immediate, will be, I am certain, of a happy nature in the very near future for my co-citizens.

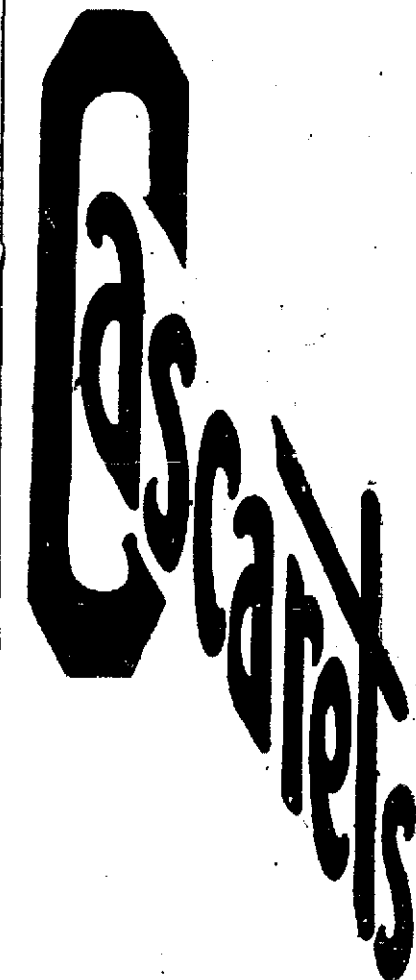

Already we have received meat from Morocco and, despite the difficulties of transportation, it arrived in good shape and was quickly disposed of and at a price, all expenses paid, 35 per cent cheaper than in Havre shops. We have created ten municipal butcher shops where our meat is sold.

On an order of 300,000 eggs from Morocco 50,000 have been delivered and they were all sold on the day of arrival at much less than market prices.

"MAD ANTHONY," FAMOUS GASSER IN MERCER-CO. 34 YEARS OLD TOMORROW

Just 34 years ago, Monday, the first big gas well in the Ft. Recovery gas field, Mercer-co., was brought in. This was one of the biggest gassers ever struck in this part of the state, running about 20,000,000 feet of gas a day at a rock pressure of over 700 feet. So great was the flow of gas that it was named "Mad Anthony" after the famous General Anthony Wayne.

With the exhaustion of the St. Marys held the Lima Natural Gas Co. extended its lines into the Mercer-co. and continued to get gas there until 1898 when it began to show signs of exhaustion. Wells in this section had shown at the first as high as 10 and 15 million feet a day but this had dwindled, until, as in the Medina field today, a two million well was a wonder.

There were only two companies in this field, the Dayton Natural Gas Co., and the Lima company. Because of the small number of companies working in it the gas taken out of the small territory, only three by six miles, was conserved for a period of approximately 13 years.

TEACHING IS NOT ALLURING

Only 27 of 71 Students Express Preference for It.

QUESTIONNAIRES SENT OUT

Result is Surprising to Superintendent Arganbright.

Interesting information regarding the inclination of high school seniors toward the teaching profession is contained in a report sent by county superintendent of schools Arganbright to State Superintendent Vernon M. Reigel. Questionnaires were sent to the members of the graduating classes in each of the high schools in the county system, asking the following questions:

Do you plan to teach?
If you do plan to teach, do you expect to make teaching a temporary or permanent occupation?

Answers were received from 71 students. Of this number 27 answered in the affirmative to the first question. As to why they would take up this work, eight said they thought they would like the work; four said it was the most convenient occupation; three felt it was broadening; three confessed an interest in teaching; two thought it was then drive; two liked children and two would enable them to make practical use of their education. Of the 27 only one expressed any intention of making teaching his life work and one was not fully decided.

Those who answered in the negative numbered 44. Of these 14 gave some other occupation; 14 said they would not like teaching; eight thought that the salaries paid are less than they could earn in other occupations; three felt that they are not fitted by nature to teach; two are financially unable to prepare for it. Some of the other reasons for their decision were:

There are too few schools in the county and said they might take up teaching in summing up the answers, Arganbright stated that the majority of those expecting to teach are planning to use this work as a stepping stone to some better and more profitable job. The salary paid is perhaps the greatest obstacle to hinder the students in taking up teaching. The next and perhaps just as great a fault is that there are other occupations that are easier and which are looked upon with greater favor by both those on the inside and those on the outside.

"These conditions must be bettered before the teaching profession can become one of the really desirable lines of work," said Arganbright.

SPRING ACTIVITY IN SCHOOLS

Sessions Resume Monday, After Easter Vacation.

OUTDOOR SPORTS ATTRACT

Pupils to Have 15 Minutes More Time for Luncheon.

Pupils will again return to school Monday, after a week of Easter vacation. Activities in the two high schools will resume with greater interest than formerly as the close of the school year is not far off and all organizations wish to finish up their work.

Now that the basketball season has closed, spring athletics such as baseball, tennis and track meets will be in the spotlight. It is not yet known definitely whether either school will have a varsity team but it is certain that class baseball teams will be organized and several games played.

An indoor class track and field meet will be held about the middle of April under the supervision of Physical Director Wallace, of Central H. The different classes will organize their teams next week and will start practice immediately.

CLASS PLAYS PROGRESS.
Dramatic clubs in both schools will continue to prepare their class plays. The Senior Class of Central high school will present "Nothing But the Truth" Friday at the central auditorium. The Junior Class will present their play early in May.

The Senate, the debating club of Central, will continue their preparation for an open meeting to be held before entire school in the near future. The subject for debate has not been decided. This debate will be the big event of the year for the Senate and all senators are looking forward to the meeting with interest, as it will give the school an opportunity to see what the Senate does in its weekly meetings.

The Girls' Welfare League will present their Penny Carnival on April 8th at Central High school. This carnival is the annual big event for the League and is the only way the girls have to secure sufficient money to continue their work of helping the poor Lima.

The minstrel show, trolley show, picture show and the follies will be the main events of the carnival. There will be numerous other shows and amusements.

WORK ON YEAR BOOKS.
The staffs of the two school papers, The Mirror of Central H. and The Rainbow of South, are hard at work preparing their year books which will go to press in the near future. The Annual is the final issue of the year and is a summary of the achievements of the year and of the graduating class.

There will be only one change when the students return to school Monday. Instead of having an hour for lunch, they will have an hour and a quarter. School will dismiss at 11:30 as usual, at noon, but afternoon classes will not start until 12:15. The afternoon session will dismiss at 3:15 instead of 3:30. This change was made as the weather will permit the pupils to go home at noon while formerly a great number were forced to go to the school cafeteria.

WOULD YOU PATRONIZE A RAILROAD THAT USED AN INFERIOR GRADE OF STEEL IN THE WHEELS OF THEIR CARS?

No. Of course you wouldn't—you would not risk the lives of yourself and family.

Then why do you equip your car with cheap inferior tires?

Every day serious accidents resulting in loss of life and horrible injury are reported as being caused by cheap tires. You need to be more careful now than ever, the entire country has been flooded with cheap junk tires. You can read advertisements now offering tires at prices that must put you wise. They try to sell you prices—not tires—so beware.

There is a quality tire house in Lima now that you can depend upon—they will not only provide you with the best tires that money can buy, but will render you real service and stand back of you to the limit.

Go to the Beckman Electric Service Station, Spring-st. and Central-ave. and be provided with the high quality tire at the proper standard price. The Ajax Clated Tread and the Ajax Road King fabric tires are entirely different from any other brand. The Clated Tread and the Painted Shoulder of Strength are the exclusive features that save you many dollars.

Make up your mind today that the best is not only the cheapest but the safest.

WHY FOSTORIA HI TURNS OUT GOOD TEAMS

FOSTORIA. — While other gridiron teams are indulging in light football training, the pigskin chasers of Fostoria Hi have been putting in three busy weeks getting ready for a real honest-to-goodness game to be played on the high school gridiron here Saturday, April 2. The game will be between the high school and alumni team. The latter organization will be taken entirely from a squad of 15 letter men who were members of the classes of 1920 and 1921. The game was scheduled in an effort to raise money for the training trip to be taken by the football squad next fall. It will also give Coach Weltner an idea of the strength of his team for this coming fall when Fostoria has a very hard schedule. The entire squad has been going thru a regular training season under Weltner's direction for the last three weeks. This has included plenty of scrimmage, charging the machine and tackling practice. The men are all ready for the battle.

LIMA IS SLOW TO GET BASEBALL TEAM UNDER WAY

By BILL BARLOW
Sporting Editor of The Lima News.

IF Lima is going to have a baseball team this season, it is time to get busy.

In previous years, ball managers here had their team lined up and a schedule partly completed by this time.

So far this year, nothing has been done, due chiefly to promoters keeping quiet to find out what kind of ball Lima fans desired most—league or independent.

But nothing has been found out either way.

A great many fans here talk league, ball all the year 'round, but not many figure that it would take not less than $10,000 to start a league team.

Besides, one team can't be a league, and where are the other teams coming from? It takes money.

IS A HARD PROPOSITION

The formation of even an independent team here this season is going to be a hard proposition to tackle.

Many former players have left town, and more players than ever will consequently have to be drafted from outside of this city.

PLAYERS HAVE LEFT

Walter Costello, one of the best known athletes in Lima, and who had played center field for Lima teams in the past several years, left Lima last week to make his home in Roanoke, Va., as district manager for the Garford Motor Truck company.

Walt Wentz, who usually played shortstop, is now running a garage in Long Beach, Calif., and has been named captain of the Long Beach nine for the coming season.

EAGAN AT URBANA

Joe Eagan, rightfielder, will manage the Urbana team this year. He is living in that city.

In past years baseball has more or less held its own in Lima. Many good teams have played on the local lot and several times last season reputed players worked on the Murphy-st diamond.

Baseball had its most successful year in Lima during the season of 1917.

SMALL PROFIT MADE

The writer chanced to get hold of some financial reports of games in the past four or five years, and the profit margin on the best year was surprising.

It was found out that the biggest percentage of the gate receipts went to high class players, many being imported here from Cleveland, Cincinnati and Columbus.

HALLOWAY IS WAITING

Bernie Halloran, who has managed the independent team here for six years, is on his "high horse." He doesn't know in just what direction to step, and wants to be sure of his footing before he takes any definite action.

He wants to please Lima baseball fans, and stands ready to give "em what they will support.

WHAT THEY WANT

The way things look now, Lima fans would rather have an independent team with a cracking good schedule, than a league team composed of smaller cities.

But at any rate, if Lima is going to have baseball this year—IT IS TIME TO GET BUSY.

The Major League season opens April 13.

College teams start schedules April 13.

When will Lima have a team to start?

GOING AFTER FIGHT WITH BIG OFFER

NEW YORK—Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier can fight to a finish in Cumberland, Md., for the heavyweight championship of the world.

They can draw a gate of more than a million dollars, at prices of from $5 to $50.

HAVE THE APPROVAL

They can go into the ring with the approval of the governor and all the state authorities.

These are some of the aces in the hole that John W. Snyder, Cumberland promoter, said Saturday night he will show to Tex Rickard Monday at a conference when he will try to induce the "owner" of the bout to name the Maryland mining town as the site.

KNOWS HIS LIMITS

"Rickard knows now that he can't stage the bout in New York," Snyder said Saturday night to the United Press. "He offered to give fifty percent of his profits to the fund for disabled soldiers if the bout could be staged in New York, and Governor Miller turned it down."

"New Jersey permits only 12-round no-decision bouts and therefore would not be attractive to the fans. We can offer him everything he wants to accept."

LIMA SCOUTS IN INDOOR CARNIVAL

Lima Boy Scouts will hold their first annual spring indoor field meet at Memorial Hall Wednesday evening. The meet will begin promptly at 7:30.

All city troops have entered the meet. Each troop will give a different demonstration besides the contests. These contests will consist of knot tying, first aid, equipment race and relay race. Each troop has entered teams in all contests.

FEATURE SCOUT WORK

The different demonstrations will be: camping, merit badge work, by troop 1, stretcher drill by troop 3, cycling merit badge by troop 2, fire by friction by troop 7, wireless merit badge by troop 6, semaphore signaling by troop 4, pioneering merit badge by troop 7, first aid to animals by troop 6, "Before entering scouting," by troop 8, and "After entering scouting," which will be a special demonstration.

This entertainment will be an annual event in which the best teams from each troop will contest for points. Individual ribbons will be presented to the winners of the different events.

TROOPS ARE PREPARED

The troops have spent the majority of their Easter vacation in preparing for their work in the meet and all teams are now in good condition. Troops 7 and 6 spent part of the week in the woods and gained much valuable experience.

The contest committee will hold a final meeting at local headquarters at 2 p. m. Tuesday. A final bugle practice will be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday afternoon at the Memorial Hall.

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE

he committee in charge has selected the following officials for the meet. Floor managers, Scoutmasters T. C. Gardner and Asst. Scoutmaster Elwood Thomas. Stage and announcements, Asst. Scoutmasters Dewis Driesbach and Gordon Sheldon. Starter, H. E. Simton; Timer, H. H. Starrett; Awards, Commissioner O'Ferrall; Bugler, Harold Stallsmith; Judges: Prentice Lawrence, John T. Carter, W. C. Friedman, D. Knisely and Dr. I. F. Steiner of the First Aid contest; C. F. Hupp and Paul T. Landis of the Equipment Race, and Chas. F. Walzen and John D. Renn of the Relay race.

BALL PLAYERS ARE GOOD DADDIES

THE immortal Toddy would have been de-lighted, simply de-lighted, with the world's champion Indians' baseball team. Babies fairly abound. Twelve members of the club account for a total of 21 bright-eyed laughing youngsters.

Steve O'Neill and Joe Wood are the champion daddies of the Champions. Steve has four girls. Joe has three boys and one girl. Singularly enough, both are fathers of twins.

THE TWIN GIRLS

Steve's twins are girls and seven months old. Joe has a boy and a girl who are twins. They are now nineteen months old. Four members of the Indians are fathers of two children. Bagby, Coveloskie, Johnston and Burns form this quartet.

Here is a complete list of fathers on the Indians' roster:

O'Neill, four girls.

Wood, three boys and one girl.

Bagby, boy and girl.

Coveloskie, two boys.

Burns, two girls.

Johnston, boy and girl.

Thomas, boy.

Caldwell, girl.

Clark, girl.

Wamby, girl.

Graney, boy.

Jamerson, girl.

Thus it can be seen the girls predominate the count in this respect being thirteen against nine of the interior sex.

TRIS SPEAKER, INDIAN MANAGER, SHINES AS TEXAS RODEO STAR—SOME DAME, EH!

FORT WORTH, Texas — Tris Speaker, spoke of the Cleveland Indians, 1920 baseball champions, is as much of a cowboy as he is a miracle man of the diamond. He has proved that to the entire satisfaction of many professional rodeo stars who competed against him during the events of the Southwestern Fat Stock Show here early this month. "Fred Beeson, first; Guy Schultz, second; Tris Speaker, third," came the announcement from the leather-lunged barker to 7,000 persons in the stands surrounding the arena. Tris Speaker had taken third rank in the calf-roping contest of the Southwestern cattle country. Without practice he had defeated a long list of professionals, including Leonard Stroud, Toots Ayers, George Brannon, "Booger Red," Oklahoma Curley, Shorty Kelson and a dozen lesser stars of rodeo firmaments. Defying his hat the idol of his home folks at Hubbard City, Texas, smiled to the stands and rode from the arena amid salvos of applause from Texans, who admitted that the old West had produced another conqueror.

Golf Artist Shows Trick Plays

CHICAGO — An ambidextrous professional golfer from Australia, Joseph H. Kirkwood, gave an exhibition of trick shots yesterday in Chicago and departed for Philadelphia and Pinchurst on his way to England and France to wrest laurels at the open championships. He expects later to compete in the national open meet at the Columbia club, Washington, D. C. Kirkwood, who is open champion of Australia, represents the Riverside Golf Club of Victoria. While just 24 years old, he won the Australian championship with 290 strokes over a 6,400 yard course. Among the trick shots was one which might be called the boomerang. He puts so much back spin on a full mashie shot that the ball rises high in the air so perpendicularly that he is able to catch it without moving. In another stunt, he drives a ball from beneath a man's foot and with equal facility picks one from the toe of a shoe. He will compete in Pinchurst in the north and south open championships.

COSTELLO IS SPRINGFIELD TEAM LOCATED IN VIRGINIA

Walter Costello, one of the best known athletes in Lima, has left this city.

Recently he was appointed district sales manager for the Garford Motor Truck company, with headquarters in Roanoke, Va.

He left here last Thursday.

AN ALL-ROUND MAN

Costello last winter managed the American Legion basketball team. Last summer he played center field on the Lima independent baseball team, as also performed with the Garford team in the industrial league.

Last August he was a runner-up in the city championship tennis tournament.

A GOOD BOOSTER

His loss deals a hard blow to local athletics. He was a true-blooded booster and an advocate of clean sportsmanship.

Besides, "Costy" was Athletic Officer of the local post of the American Legion.

SPEAKER PREFERS TRAINED COLLEGE MEN

CLEVELAND — Manager Tris Speaker of the Cleveland Indians is going in strong for college players. He already has ten on his squad, including eight pitchers, and indications are he will add several more before the season is over. Of the pitchers Walter Mails, who joined the tribe shortly before the last season ended, is a graduate of St. Mary's College, California. Bob Clark came from Susquehanna, C. R. Ellison from the University of California, H. L. Kline from Ohio State, J. C. Edwards, from Mississippi College, C. C. Hamilton from the University of Iowa, and B. Henderson from Texas A. & M. Wayne Middleton, a recruit southpaw attending Simmons college, Abilene, Texas, will report here June 1.

THREE FROM SOUTH

In addition, Manager Speaker has Shortstop Joe Sewell and Second Baseman Riggs Stephenson of the University of Alabama, and may sign Catcher Luke Sewell and Third Baseman Hall, of the same school before the year is over. "My reason for showing more consideration to college players and particularly pitchers," Speaker said, "is that practically all the colleges have good coaches, former big or minor leaguers. As a result college pitchers come to you with a pretty good pitching knowledge." Hamilton, Ellison and Kline jumped from college to the Cleveland team, and Henderson and Edwards are still in schools. Mails and Clark had minor league experience.

SPEEDY YACHTS ARE ENTERED TO RACE FOR KING'S CUP

NEW YORK — American yachtsmen will leave no sail untied in their effort to uphold this country's supremacy on the water during the coming summer.

Plans are already under way for improving sailing craft to be entered in the big international transatlantic race for King Albert's cup next July, and work of "six metre" yachts that are to race at Cowes, England, next August has already begun.

IS FREE FOR ALL

The big race for the gold trophy offered by Belgium's monarch is expected to attract no less than twenty-five entries, for the contest is to be a free-for-all event, the only stipulation of the donor being that all entrants shall be wind-propelled vessels.

Not a few of the American entrants will be auxiliaries, but their engines will remain sealed until after they have crossed the finish line at Ostend, unless they encounter mishaps which would compel them to withdraw from competition.

NO HANDICAP RESTRICTIONS

One of the features of the race that tends to make it the greatest maritime sporting event ever attempted is the fact that it is to be a boat for boat affair. No entrant will enjoy a handicap and no time allowance, based on complicated measurements, will be granted. The first yacht to cross the line of the Belgian coast at Ostend will be declared the winner.

The races last summer between the Shamrock IV, and the Resolute off Sandy Hook demonstrated plainly enough that the public is not interested in involved handicapping, which often makes a loser out of the vessel finishing first. Again, the absence of such things as time allowance based on sail area, etc., is expected to encourage Yankee ingenuity in rigging up entrants for the big event.

FISHERMEN WILL ENTER

There is a good chance that vessels belonging to fishermen, such as the American, Esperanto, and the Canadian, Delaware, which raced off Halifax last October, will greatly increase the field of expected entrants. Many of the "old salts" who own such vessels are of the opinion that in a 3,000-mile ocean race, such as the one for King Albert's cup will be, they would be able to sail rings around a majority of amateur helmsmen and it permitted many of them will enter sloops.

LITTON KEEN FOR IT

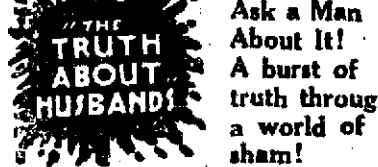

The expected entry of Sir Thomas Litton will greatly increase interest in the event. Should the veteran Irish baronet get "into the swim" it will be for "blood," and, great sportsman that he is, it seems certain that he will be tempted. The Shamrock IV, by the way, might be rigged for transoceanic sailing, as she is of heavy type and a fast footer in turbulent water. It is believed, however, that Sir Thomas will enter a vessel of more sound ocean-going lines should he decide to get in.

YACHTSMEN HERE BUSY

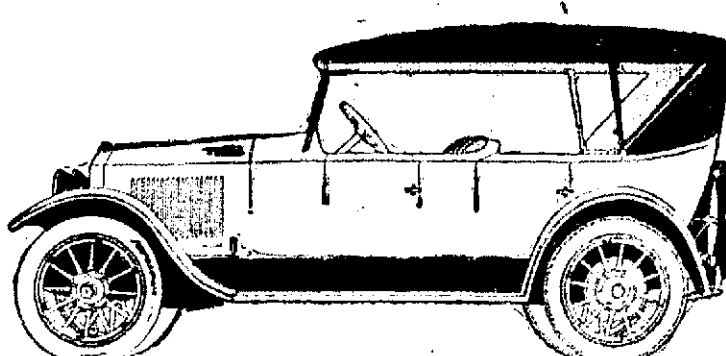

King Alfonso of Spain, a yachting enthusiast for years and King George of England may send yachts across the big pond for the race, according to talk going the rounds.

Meanwhile yachtsmen on this side are bending their efforts to put every improvement possible into craft already built.

One-third of the area of Barbados is planted in sugar cane.

Ask a Man About It! A burst of truth through a world of sham!

ANOTHER INDUSTRIAL BASEBALL LEAGUE TO BE ORGANIZED BY Y. M. C. A. IN APRIL

Prospects for another Industrial Baseball League this season are looking big before S. C. Biddle, industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Altho arrangements are being delayed on account of the slump in employment in Lima industrial plants, four concerns have announced that they will have teams ready to enter when the umpire yells "Play Ball."

The four teams are the Solar outfit, Garford, last year's champions, the Locomotive and the Lima Telephone and Telegraph company squads.

At the end of the season last year the Deisel-Wemmer team withdrew, declaring it would not participate in such a league again unless it was differently supervised.

It is believed a new plan which will be inaugurated will draw the cigar makers, which provides for the appointment of three disinterested business men to settle disputes and handle business affairs of the league.

Mr. Biddle said Saturday that he expects to be ready to name the men for the plate within the next week. Several are being considered, he said.

It is undecided as to whether or not the Gramm-Bernstein Motor Truck company will have a team to enter, while it is understood efforts are being made to organize teams at the East Iron works and the L. E. & W. shops.

Mr. Biddle hopes to be able to have a schedule arranged by April 15, to present at the combined banquet of the industrial basketball players and bowlers to be held at the Y. M. C. A.

Many of last year's industrial baseball players have left Lima, caused by their being let out of work thru the general slump in employment.

Because of this, it is understood several plants will have difficulty in recruiting as good teams as they had entered last year in the league.

The Garford team will probably be the hardest hit thru the loss of Walter Costello, who left Lima last week to become district sales manager of the Garford company with headquarters in Roanoke, Va.

Some work will have to be done on the diamond at the city park. The fence behind the home plate will have to be repaired, and the outfield cleared of debris that has collected since the season closed last fall.

Talk of a "Twilight League" being organized is being protested by the majority of industrial players. They say that most plants do not quit work until 5 or 5:30 o'clock, and to play baseball after that would be hard on them as well as unsatisfactory to the "woman back home."

Mr. Biddle said it may be definitely stated that no "Twilight League" will be organized with industrial teams participating this summer.

Y.M.C.A. BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT IN LIMA THIS WEEK

Entries for the Y. M. C. A. invitational basketball tournament continue to pour into Physical Director Maxwell's office, with the start of the meet less than a week away.

The Ada All-Stars and the Y. M. B. C.'s of Wapakoneta are the last two outfits to enter. Their papers arrived Saturday, with letters acknowledging their eagerness to get a crack at Lima and other Allen-co basketball quintets.

More than 15 teams are already entered, and as many more are expected to enter by the time the entries close next Wednesday noon.

Teams wanting to enter that have not received entry blanks may get them by writing to L. G. Maxwell, physical director at the Lima Y. M. C. A., or telephone their entrance to him.

SILVER CUP AT STAKE
A handsome silver loving cup is being awarded the winning team, and players selected on the all-star team will be given smaller trophies, testifying as to their calibre shown in the meet.

All the teams will assemble on the floor at the Y at 9 o'clock next Friday morning when the drawing will take place. Games will be started immediately, and the playing will continue thru Saturday until Saturday night when the runner-up will play in the finals.

DISINTERESTED OFFICIALS
Out-of-town officials that are in no way connected or interested in any of the teams will be employed.

Mr. Maxwell will be in charge of the tournament, assisted by Mr. Walker.

PINS TUMBLE AT K. OF C. ALLEYS

The Cardinals and Giants each won two out of three games in their match series with the Dodgers and White Sox teams in the scheduled games of the K. of C. League, rolled at the Recreation Building.

Chas. Dimond delivered a 213 score in his middle game, that mark being the best individual score in the evening's play. The Army league composed of teams organized among girls, moved their schedule ahead instead of rolling on the coming Wednesday and engaged the Maple Leafs last night, the change of dates worked favorably for the Majors and Lieutenants who defeated their opponents, the Colonels and Captains, in a clean state series.

BOWLING GAB OF LIMA PINMEN

The Lima Trust Company and First National Bank have organized bowling teams, having rolled their first match at the Recreation Building yesterday afternoon. The Trust organization with a total of 2500 were winners over their supposed stronger opponents who fell short 100 pins of the count of the victors.

The Capitol City Bowling team who will represent this city in the National tournament, rolled their first practice match game last night before taking the drives at Buffalo next Tuesday.

The Capitol team turned over 2500 new pins last night which means that our town is represented at the big meet by a quintet who have a good gambling chance of gathering some honors at the Falls City, despite the fact that all former A. B. C. records have been broken this year.

Dee Miller, Howard Sanders, M. L. Johnson, Christ Probst, Bernard Holloran, Dick Hardesty are the bowlers who will make the Buffalo trip.

Oliver Smith, who was slated to roll at Buffalo with the Capitol City aggregation, will be unable to make the trip, having left this city on a business trip to one of the western states. Smith has numerous tournament records and it is to be regretted that he is unable to shoot at Buffalo.

Entries to local tournaments are reported to be coming in and some lively times are expected on home alleys during the next month.

The Broadway tournament will commence the first part of the coming week and continue until the schedule is complete. The Recreation Building and Elks Home tournament will follow the Broadway returns.

COVELESKIE, ACE AMONG PITCHERS

WORLD'S SERIES HALL OF FAME

PITCHERS WHO HAVE WON THREE GAMES AND LOST NONE IN A WORLD'S SERIES:

1905—MATHEWSON
1909—ADAMS
1910—COOMBS
1920—COVELESKIE

COVELESKIE

SENSATIONAL SPIT BALLIST WAS STAR OF WORLD SERIES; WON THREE, LOST NONE

Anyone who believes the road to pitching fame is paved with roses may find proof to the contrary in the record of Stanley Coveleskie.

The star of the 1920 world's series found the highway that leads to baseball's hall of fame steep and rocky. He had to work harder than the average pitcher because he is a disciple of the spitball, and as such suffered from wildness which he was unable to remedy for a good many seasons.

Today the star of the Cleveland Indians stands out as one of the most sensational pitchers baseball has known, and enjoys the distinction of being one of a select quarter of twirlers who have won three games and lost none in a single world's series.

RANKS AT THE TOP
In addition to this fine record Coveleskie ranks as one of the greatest pitchers of the age, and, thanks to a sane ruling made by the major league rules committee, after the spitball was put under the ban, "Covey" will be enabled to continue in the use of his pet delivery until he comes to the end of his trail as a big league star.

During the 1920 campaign Coveleskie and Jim Bagby were the men who shouldered the burden of pitching Tris Speaker's Indians to their first American League pennant. On the season's work Bagby finished with a better record for games won, but in spite of this fact it was Coveleskie who stepped into the breach when victories were most needed and turned back the opposition. It was Coveleskie's consistent pitching in crucial series and his fine work in the world's series that landed the Indians their world's championship.

BACK WITH INDIANS
"Covey" will be back in the harness with the Indians again this year and Cleveland fans are hoping that his good right arm will not fail, and that his control of the spitball will be just as effective as it was last year. Last season the world's series star took part in forty-one games. Out of this number he turned in the fine total of twenty-four victories against fourteen defeats for a pitching percentage of .632. He faced 1,135 batters and gave up 3.48 earned runs per nine innings.

Opposing batemen got sixty-five bases while he officiated in the box. He won the strike-out title for the season by fanning 137 batters, and four hit batemen, coupled with one lone wild pitch all season, offer mute evidence to the manner in which he has learned to control the moist delivery.

WHAT WILL HE DO
What will Coveleskie do this year? Indications are that with the spitball given a new lease on life and the same fine team that won the world's title behind him, he may continue on his winning way. He may even turn in more victories for the tribe than he did last year, and if the Speakerites manage to battle their way into another world's series he will have another chance to show the baseball world what a hard-working "fogballist" can do.

STARTED IN 1908
It was back in 1908 that "Covey" first broke into the box scores as a professional player, and it took a big part of his twelve years to land him in the select class of pitchers who win rank among the greatest the game has produced. He got his start with Shamokin, Pa., in the Atlantic League, an independent organization, and from there went to Lancaster in the Tri-State League.

In 1912 he was purchased by the Philadelphia Athletics. A member of the Mackmen Coveleskie was anything but a success, and Connie Mack sent him to Spokane, because the percentage of earned runs made off his delivery in games pitched for the "A's" was so great that Connie evidently figured him dead weight on the payroll. In 1915, Portland purchased "Covey" from Spokane and the following year he came back to the American League as a member of the Indians where he has been ever since.

One of his best years up to 1920 was the season of 1919 when he won twenty-four games and lost but eleven for the Indians, appearing in forty-three pastimes.

"Covey's" work in the recent world's series was altogether brilliant. He started the first game for the Indians in Brooklyn and turned in a 2 to 1 victory, pitching against Marquard, Mamour and Cadore. He came back in the fourth game against the same pitchers, with Jeff Pfeffer to boot, and the Indians romped away with the victory, 5 to 1. In the seventh game he pitched shutout ball, downing the Robins 3 to 0. It was this victory that gave him entree to the select set of pitchers who have won three games in a single world's series. Eight pitchers now hold this distinction, the only half of this number, among whom Coveleskie ranks, have turned in three victories against no defeats. The records of the class to which the Cleveland star belongs, follow:

THEY'LL BITE On Our Tackle

13 SOX PLAYERS ARE AGAIN INDICTED; NAB 5 OTHERS

CHICAGO—One hundred and forty-four indictments, naming eighteen men, were returned Saturday by the Cook-co grand jury as a result of the second investigation into the alleged throwing of the 1919 world series to Cincinnati by Chicago White Sox players. Eight separate indictments against each person were returned.

The indictments named the thirteen men indicted at the first investigation and also five men charged with taking part in arranging the alleged conspiracy. These men were Carl Zook and Ben Franklin, of St. Louis; Ben and Louis Levi, said to be from Des Moines, and David Zelser, address unknown.

The men reindicted were: Eddie Cicotte, pitcher, who confessed to receiving $10,000 to throw games; Claude Williams, pitcher, who confessed to receiving $5,000; Joe Jackson, outfielder, who confessed to receiving $5,000; Fred McMullin, utility infielder; Chick Gandil, first baseman; Swede Risberg, shortstop; Oscar Felsch, outfielder; Buck Weaver, third baseman; Hal Chase, former major league first baseman; Bill Burns, former major league pitcher; Abe Attel, once champion featherweight boxer; Rachel Brown, alleged gambler; Joseph J. Sullivan, alleged gambler.

DISMISSED BY STATE
The cases against Cicotte, McMullin, Jackson, Felsch, Weaver, Risberg, Jackson and Williams recently were dismissed by the state on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence available to convict. The cases against the other men indicted last fall were taken off the court call.

Each indictment today contained three counts, charging conspiracy to defraud, obtaining money under false pretenses and conspiracy to do an illegal act. Bonds were fixed at $200 for each indictment or $24,000 for each man.

TO GO AFTER 'EM
Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, announced after the indictments were returned that he already had started extradition proceedings against the men named and that every effort would be made to apprehend them at once.

"There will be no jokes about this investigation, and no dropping of charges brought in these indictments," said Mr. Crowe. "We have proceeded carefully, to make sure of every detail, and we will not miss a thing."

SIX BOWLERS OF LIMA IN BIG MEET
Six Lima bowlers will leave here Monday night for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will take part in the national American Bowling Congress tournament.

They are: David Miller, Howard Sanders, M. L. Johnson, Richard Hardesty, Christ Probst and Bernie Halloran.

Tuesday night they are scheduled to roll in the five-man event, with doubles and singles carried for Wednesday.

IN GOOD SHAPE
In preparation to spring a surprise in the big classic, the boys have been practicing almost daily for the past month to get in tip-top shape.

They need different alleys, and believe they are now able to make some of the country's pin artists sit up and take notice.

"Ye Guld Auld Game"—The Golfer's Jacket—Caps That Stick Fast—A Footnote About Shoes—Waistcoats For The Links

By ALFRED STEPHEN BRYAN

New York, March 26

MISGUIDED patriotism is fond of exclaiming, "American Fashions For American Men".
Why should we have American Fashions any more than American Manners? Good breeding is good breeding the world over, and good taste is good taste everywhere.
Nobody is perfect
except the girl
one is engaged to,
and certainly no single country is so omniscient as to attain perfection in everything. It takes the united efforts of many lands and many minds. True fashion is not national, but international; it borrows and lends.

What would our golf clothes look like, if we hadn't followed the Scotch, who invented the game?
To whom are we indebted for knickers and gaiters,
but the English country
squire? Whose happy thought was the Opera hat, but that of a Frenchman? Who introduced the Tyrolean soft hat, but the Swiss mountaineer?
Men's fashions are culled
from the wide world—

they always were and, moreover, they always must be.

To those fixed American institutions—Pullman sleepers and baseball—may be added a third, golf, for with the new-broom enthusiasm of the recent convert we now out-Scotch the Scotch themselves in our devotion to the olden and only game.

The foregoing sketch portrays a golfer's jacket having the chief characteristics of all such garments

—pivot sleeves and patched breast and side pockets in front
—together with expanding lengthwise pleats in the back to permit free arm-play and shoulder-sway. There are no hard-and-fast rules about the cut of one's golf jacket, except that it should hang, rather than fit.

Considering what a cap covers, it is astonishing that not more gray matter is used in its choice. The cap illustrated in the second column has both good looks and good sense, inasmuch as the long visor guards against sun-blink, the crown is full and flexible and the curved, low back allows secure adjustment to the head in the most spanking wind.

Golf shoes are of almost countless types.

The shoe, shown in center column, has the oval toe with a strapped vamp, the squat heel and the high-cut back. The sole is rubber equipped with cleats to give firm ground-grip.

Golfing waistcoats of knitted or woven cloth, as well as light leather are often worn under the jacket or take the place of it. One of these is pictured above.
It has high blunt lapels with buttons each side.

TIMELY TOG TIPS

Loud colors in neckwear, shirts, hosiery and other articles of men's wear for spring and summer have been given the grand bounce by the well dressed man. No more are the loud colors to be pronounced the height of fashion for the man has edicted that there shall be nothing but, the more subdued colors, mostly plain white, worn by him if he is to be well dressed.

MR. CLARK, MGR.
MEN'S DEPT., BLUEM'S
The silk shirt had been given way to the finer grades of madras, oxford cloth and some grades of linen, a great many of the shirts for this summer will be worn with collars attached and of the same material as the shirt.

LOYD APPLAS
HABERDASHER
As for neckwear—the thinner the better. Altho the thin tie gained a great deal of popularity during the past winter, there is little doubt that they will be even more popular during the coming summer. The most popular colors for the knitted wear are dark brown and black.
Fashion magazines declare that 65 percent of the neckwear being bought now are knit ties.

MR. CHENOWETH
JOLLEY AND CHENOWETH
Light top coats, even the popular with young men last fall, are finding even more favor this spring. The material is almost invariably gabardine in light tan or grey color.

MAX FALK EILERMAN'S
Brown, navy blue and grey seem to be the prevailing colors for men's and young men's clothes for spring and summer wear. As usual the single breasted sack coat will be the height of fashion, altho there will be a number of double breasted coats worn. The single breasted coats will be looser without any flare and will fasten with only two buttons, as a rule. Altho these fashions are predicted for the majority of men, there will no doubt be many departures from these styles.

CARL ISHAM
MORRIS BROTHERS
Fancy belt buckles are becoming more and more popular as the season advances. They are being accepted as quite the proper wear for street and business.

BOYS' SUITS are appearing in much better materials than for some time.
The more popular colors for boys are brown, blue and grey with a sprinkling of checks and pin stripes.

PAUL CRAWFORD
CRAWFORD'S BOOTERY
Never in the history of my store in Lima have I sold as many pairs of low shoes for men so early in the spring season," said Mr. Crawford, when asked about the outlook in men's shoes for spring and summer wearing. Mr. Crawford continued, the general demand for men seems to be for a fancy, highly perforated pattern of oxford. We are showing a great many styles with punching, on toes, vamp seams and lace straps.

WERNER & WINKLER
CUSTOM TAILORS
Tips on men's suit coats for spring.
Waist length will not be so long, back will be looser, shoulders not so narrow. Lapels will have a slope, with forges lower, lapel peaked and straight at edge so that any striped material will run true with edge of lapel. Sleeves not so tight with flare at wrist to give bell cuff effect. All coats are to be made with soft rolling fronts.

LID OF SECRECY IS RAISED

Latest Dope From Delphos, Wapak and St. Marys

"Yes I guess I'm a candidate for appointment as postmaster at Delphos," John H. Jenkins, former Republican mayor of the neighborhood, said yesterday while a visitor in Lima. "I didn't know it and had no thought of anything of the kind until I saw the light in August 1929, when an assembly of postmasters, excited G. O. P. men at Republican headquarters in the Holmes block here, for the purpose of choosing an executive committee for the campaign. Without authority on my part, my name was announced before that assembly as a candidate for postmaster. That started something."

Jenkins didn't succeed in getting on the executive committee, because he was on the wrong side of the situation for that particular time, when the younger element of the Republican party was hogged, gagged and rendered impotent politically by Gale-Downing airtight organization and cast into outer darkness. But another candidate for the Delphos postoffice did. Ed Truesdale, former assistant postmaster, when W. A. Coble landed the place through the influence of M. J. Hosler, at that time a tower of strength in Allen-Cole politics, wants to succeed Alex Shenk, Jr., the present incumbent. Truesdale never quite forgave Coble or Hosler for keeping him out of the top position at that time and ever since he has bided his time, hoping that eventually his aspiration would be realized, namely, to tack the title of P. M. onto his cognomen.

"There was a lot of maneuvering the night of that central committee meeting," Jenkins said. "Mysterious moves that were not disclosed until the assembly became heated and the contest for the selection of an executive committee was in full swing. However, I do not anticipate that there is going to be anything doing in the matter of a change of postmasters for a couple of years as I believe that the Wilson appointees will be permitted to serve out their terms, provided they were confirmed by the Senate and there is nothing against them. In the case of Postmaster Shenk, so far as I know, there has been no complaint."

The latest advice received from the seat of political war in Auglaize-co., at Wapakoneta, is that at least two G. O. P. aspirants are setting up night sharpening eyes to be used in the decapitation of Postmaster A. E. Schaffer, who served a full term by appointment bestowed by President Wilson and was reappointed.

Adam was fortunate enough to get under the wire with a Senate confirmation before the bars were raised and still has a couple of years to serve—if he isn't yanked loose by Republican persistence and hunger for office.

One of the two Republican aspirants for Ad's job, so stated, is George W. Hassenier, chairman of the Auglaize-co executive committee. Rumor has it that Emil H. Moser is the other. Both are bosom friends of Charley Herbst, the recognized political boss of the county and where Charley will bestow his broadest smile at the proper time isn't disclosed now.

Hassenier used to be clerk of everything in Wapakoneta, has for years been one of the high moguls of the party and very likely will leave nothing undone to effect a landing on Postoffice Beach. Moser, jeweler by trade and politician by choice, had a hunkering after the Wapakoneta postoffice job began years ago. Emil was appointed for the job of P. M. but wasn't confirmed by the Senate and was wheeled out of it.

The wisecracks of the Wapak college of politics are taking it for granted that Moser is again to hot-foot after the job. He's never had more than a hunkering after the job, but now he's seeking bigger game. Just how George and Emil are going to settle things is a manner "satisfactory to all parties concerned," isn't disclosed—yet.

Hearsay is running riot with rumors concerning the postoffice situation in St. Marys, also located in Auglaize-co. where the voters rose up last fall almost en masse and not only gave Warren G. Harding's electors a majority, but elected the entire Republican ticket, the first time in the history of the county. And that portion of the electorate from the rural precincts who turned their backs on the Bourbon ticket while obsessed with the belief that $2 wheat would go to $5 and $200 to $2000 an acre land to $500, are now wondering why they did it and likewise cannot understand and believe what their fellow citizen, J. H. Goske told them from the stump in his campaign speeches.

But regarding the St. Marys postoffice job, Charley Herbst, Wilson appointee, is still sitting on the lid with a couple of years to serve, with his second appointment confirmed by the United States Senate. However, that hasn't deterred other candidates for his job on the other side of the political fence, sticking up lightning rods.

It is stated—but it's only a rumor—mind you—that O. E. Dunan, prominent banker, wouldn't mind bowing Charley out while bowing himself in at the postoffice. Mr. Dunan hasn't confirmed or denied the report, therefore it can only be stated as a rumor.

Lon Saum, plentifully avowed, poised, round and happy, an optimistic Republican of the old school, is accredited with having developed a full grown desire to offer himself as a "sacrifice" on the altar of his party.

A third seeker named is Brough Hamilton, sometime plumber and crony of the coterie in and about St. Marys who never did see anything good in a Democratic administration now, back in the old days, of rampant party politics in St. Marys, before the Demmies and the G. O. P. were required by exigencies to unite their forces in a common cause municipally. Brough was in the king pin row as a "big noise" of his chosen party, along with "Yockey" Smith, recognized oracle of the party and a member of the clan that still debates in Limbach's cigar store.

Allen-co 90 Years Old on March 29 --First Officials and First Court

Issuance of Licenses for Taverns Important Duty In Early Days

Details of First Convictions for Crime in Allen-co In Old Record

Allen-co will be 90 years old, Tuesday, March 29.

The record of the first session of the county court and of the appointment of the first county officials is contained in an old ledger, yellow with age, in the office of the county clerk. It is but a small volume, covered with dust and when opened the leaves fall apart like they had been burned. The ink upon the pages is faded brown but having been written before the typewriter and short-hand, the writing is letter perfect. The most up to date printing could not be clearer.

The issuance of licenses to keep taverns seems to have been the chief duty of the court and a judge was given the first license. Taverns, moreover, were deemed a necessity. License cost only $5. The first conviction was for selling liquor to Indians.

HOW ORGANIZED
Ninety years ago that day, March 29, 1831, three associate judges, Christopher Woods, William Watt and James Crozier, met at the home of James Daniels and according to the old court docket in the county clerk's office, "being commissioned and sworn into office, proceeded to appoint the following officers, to-wit: John Ward, clerk pro tem of common pleas; three county commissioners, James Daniels, Samuel Stewart and John G. Wood; county treasurer, Adam White; county recorder, Nathan Daniels, and county assessor, Samuel M'Cluer."

The first term of court, the August term, convened August 27, 1831, and was presided over by the three associate judges and President George R. Holt. At this session John Ward, the new clerk, gave bond in the sum of $10,000 which was placed in the hands of the treasurer. The docket states that among those present was Henry Lippincott, sheriff. The court appointed Aaron Miller prosecuting attorney and the first grand jury was formed. It was composed of William G. Wood, foreman, Ferdinand Miller, William Berryman, Joseph Ward, Samuel Stewart, Joseph Lippincott, Robert Terry, Joseph G. Walton, John C. Wood, James Watt, Samuel Washburn, Elizabeth Bates, Nathan Daniels, Adam White, Enos Terry.

FIRST GRAND JURY
The said James Watt, Adam White, Nathan Daniels and Enos Terry being summoned and returned by the sheriff from the bystanders to make up the panel, all good law-abiding men of the county, who after being sworn and charged retired to enter upon their duties," says the docket. From this it can be seen that the county officials made up part of the grand jury.

The next act of the court was to appoint John Ward, Bernard Brewster, William G. Woods, Lewis Graff, John Ireland, Daniel Hoke, Silas Fount and Adam White examiners of common schools.

They granted one of their number a license to operate a tavern. The court record reads:
"On filing and reading the petition of James Crozier for a license to keep a tavern as per petition on file, the court being satisfied that a tavern is necessary for the public convenience at the place proposed, that the petitioner is of good moral character and a suitable person to keep the same, that he is provided with suitable accommodations to keep the same, do grant said applicant a license on his paying in to the county treasury the sum of five dollars." Samuel Washburn was granted a license for the same fee. The court finished the day by discharging the grand jury which had on business and paying of the Prosecuting Attorney $20 for his work. In the words of the docket the court "adjourned without day."

TAVERN LICENSES
At the next session, the August term, 1832, on Friday, 17, John P. Mitchell was granted a license to run a tavern.
"William Chaffee produced to court his credentials showing he is an ordained minister recognized by a regular Baptist Society, called Sugar Creek society, authorized to solemnize marriage in the state and the clerk is ordered to issue licenses accordingly."

It seems that the first man arrested and brought into court was Daniel Furdy, charged with perjury. However, the grand jury investigated and found no indictment and he was discharged.

Andrew Kierles, charged with selling spirituous liquors to Indians was the first man convicted in the court. After being indicted by the grand jury he pleaded not guilty, but was found guilty by the court and fined $40 and the costs of the prosecution.

FIRST ASSAULT CASE
The next culprit was George White, who was fined $8 and costs for assault and battery and required to give $50 surety "to keep the peace towards all citizens of Ohio and Abraham Oshorn in particular." John Barshore was found not guilty of the charge of retailing spirituous liquors without a license.

The first injunction suit, that of James Taylor against Thomas Pritchett and others necessitated the advertising of the notice of the pendency of the suit. This was done in the Piquette Gazette in Miami-co, there being then no newspaper in Allen-co.

The cost of the liquor license then took a drop. William Bayles and Jeremiah Ayres were granted licenses to keep taverns for $2 each. Ayres was to be at Wapakonetta.

Children's Eyes Need Constant Watching

Children frequently misuse their eyes during the period when they are most susceptible to injury. Parents are often to be blamed for this condition.

The normal eye is not burned by hard usage, but the growing eye, if defective in vision, may be permanently impaired by hard school work.

The only safe way is to have their eyes examined at the very first indication of trouble. We will be glad to do this for you.

GERMAN MUD WITH HORSERADISH

Chick Foltz Gets Oversupply European Roots.

"I've got a half of barrel of German mud out here at my place that I will donate to anyone free of charge," H. L. Foltz, local produce dealer, said Saturday.

Foltz experienced some trouble in getting horse radish from the American horse radish market at St. Louis, so he ordered a barrel of German and Danish roots from a Boston commission broker. The price was slight and the quality is fine, but the German farmers had heard the horse radish named after German days that half of the shipment was found to be real horse radish. The bundles were found with white withers.

Foltz says that if he takes from two to three weeks to get a shipment of horse radish from St. Louis, but the German radish is in season and to him it is a day's time. Nevertheless, Foltz says, he puts in good American horse radish to the German product since the mud shipment and that it only bought German stuff out of curiosity, anyhow.

"He did, but he says he can't enjoy drinking it for worrying about what he'll do when it's all gone."

A movie comedian, across point and picture in hand, he took thru his dressing-room door to catch the full weight of the conversation going on below. It appeared that several colored parties were discussing the acute housing situation.

"Am I hard to people with children to rent an apartment?" asked a newcomer.

"Ah, should say not," was the answer. "It can be done and simple. All you gotta do is chloroform a landlord."

There was an occasion when James Whistler, the famous artist, accused J. Conroy Carr, the brilliant wit, dramatist and actor, of making a joke at the expense of a certain friend.

"Will," replied Carr, "I can make a friend most days, but I can only make a good joke now and then."

"Ha, Ha!" laughed Whistler. "I wish I had said that myself!"

"Never mind, Jimmy, you will," retorted Carr.

LIMA NOW HAS LARGEST MUSIC STORE IN STATE

The reason for the large growth and success of this enterprising concern, is that they have always sold the same pianos lower than other dealers.

When Story & Clark pianos were selling from $200.00 to $350.00, The Maus Piano Company sold the same pianos at $175.00 and $190.00. When Packard pianos were selling in this territory for $350.00 and $400.00, they sold them at $190.00 and $225.00.

Robert M. Cable pianos are and have been sold at $300.00 and $350.00, and their players $550 to $600; while The Maus Piano Company have sold and are selling the same pianos at $175.00 to $225.00 and their player pianos at $390.00 to $425.00.

When other dealers were asking $700.00 to $750.00 for Chickering Grand Pianos, the Maus Piano Company sold them at $450.00 and $500.00. Today The Maus Piano Co. are selling GULBRANSEN PLAYER PIANOS $100.00 lower than any other dealer in the state.

SERVICE—WITHOUT SHAMMING

UNFORTUNATELY, in most business, so-called "service" is largely a sham. From the half-hearted whisk-brooming of the Pullman porter to the final "inspection" of the automobile tester, service seems to be more a matter of appearance than helpfulness.

We cannot offer you that kind of Service, but we do offer the kind you'll tell your friends about.

And it isn't the result of luck or coincidence. We've planned and studied to be helpful, rather than to appear helpful.

YOU will put up with any kind of Service in a pinch—but you are going to be a permanent customer of the man who gives you the greatest satisfaction all the time.

That's what we've based our plans on; to give you the greatest satisfaction all the time.

That's why we recommend the Philadelphia Diamond Grid Battery with Philco Retainers.

It's guaranteed for two years.
